I understand that my scholarship application will be reviewed once all documents have been received by Magellan Study Abroad. In the event the program or scholarship I have selected is unavailable, I understand that the scholarship may be awarded for a different Magellan Study Abroad program. I attest that all the documents submitted with this application form are true and no falsified documents have been included with this scholarship application. I am aware that these scholarships are only applicable to programs during Summer 2018. I understand that Magellan Study Abroad reserved the right to remove any application for not meeting deadlines or for being received with incomplete or missing documents. I further understand that Magellan Study Abroad reserves the right to remove any application prior to the start of any program due to suspension or expulsion from school, or during a program, due to behavior deemed detrimental to themselves or others enrolled in the program, according to the judgment of Magellan Program Directors – at my own expense. If I am awarded a scholarship my parents and I will be required to sign an Enrollment Contract, a Release & Waiver Agreement, and provide a completed Medical Form as a condition of participation in a Magellan Study Abroad program.
